Cont

39(New). A single-chip structure of silicon germanium photodetectors and high-speed transistors according to claim 24 wherein the insulation layer is perpendicular to and touches the substrate and goes through the base layer, photoabsorbing and collector layers.